ELIM BLOCK PARTY UPDATE

We will not be having a block party this year. The main focus of the block party has been to remind the local public that we are here. It was an attempt to engage them in a friendly environment. While it has been a lot of fun, sadly, it has failed in that main objective. We have not gained attendance nor seen a noticeable amount of local foot traffic at the event. Now it's not all bad. We have seen a lot of support from Elim which we are very thankful for. We also have seen many non-Elim people there because people have invited them. We are grateful for that as well. However, as fun as it has been Elim has plenty of fun events to INVITE people to. With that in mind we are shutting down the block party.

L.J. Cunningham

I would like to thank everyone for making my birthday so special! For all who helped with the Family Retreat at Scott County Park, for all the cards & gifts (even the prank gifts about my old age!), and for the generous monetary gift by the congregation, I am so grateful. Turning 50 isn't so wonderful, but being pastor of such a loving congregation sure is!

God bless you all! Pastor Steve
